

*Some question whether it is appropriate for the Church to play a role in political life.
However, the obligation to teach the moral truths that should shape our lives, including our public lives, is central to the mission given to the Church by Jesus Christ.*

Guest Speaker: Jenny Kraska

*“Lies, Damned Lies & Politics –
How Good Catholics Are Called To Meddle In Politics”*

Tapping into Theology at the Pikes Peak Brewing Company

Jenny Kraska grew up in Prior Lake, Minn., a suburb of Minneapolis. She attended the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul where she graduated with a double major in Catholic studies and theology with a minor in Latin. She continued her graduate studies at the University of St. Thomas where she earned her doctor of law degree and a master's degree in Catholic studies. Jenny worked as a research attorney for Thompson West Publishing before moving to Colorado in 2007 to join the Colorado Catholic Conference - the state level, public policy agency of the Church, jointly operated by the three Catholic dioceses in the state. In 2008 she became the Executive Director of the Colorado Catholic Conference. Jenny currently serves as President of the National Association of State Catholic Conference Directors, and is a Consultant to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Catholic Education. She is a member of the Federal Assistance Advisory Commission and a board member of Catholic Rural Life. She also serves as a Consultant to the Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.
